

Plants Around the World

The Joshua tree is from North America

The corpse lily from Indonesia smells like rotting flesh

The Dracula benedictii from Colombia looks like a monkey's face

The tropical pitcher plant is from Sri Lanka, India. It eats bugs.

The flying duck orchid is in Australia

Vocabulary	Definition
------------	------------

Biome	An environment that is dependent on the climate, wildlife, soil, and plants.
-------	--

Climate Zone	An area that has it's own distinct climate e.g. hot or lots of rainfall
--------------	---

Botanist	A specialist that studies plants and fungi
----------	--

Agriculture	Farming and soil preparation
-------------	------------------------------

Continent	Large parts of the world that hold lots of countries
-----------	--

Deforestation	Cutting down trees and destroying wildlife in order to gather wood
---------------	--

Plant Uses

Wood is chopped down from forests to create everyday items such as toys, tools, pencils, fences, buildings and furniture.

Ginger can help with muscle and joint pain and many other things

Mint treats an upset stomach and is good for coughs and colds

Aloe vera is used in lotions to help soothe skin irritation / burns

Cotton plants help to create fibres: where they are spun to create fabric, rope and other things.

Fibres help to create clothes, bedding, nappies, carpets, sails, bags and art canvases